

DISCLAIMERS

All sales are final. There are absolutely no refunds.

All bidders must be at least 18 years of age.

Research and Inspect Thoroughly Before You Bid.

Prospective purchasers are urged to examine the title, physical location and desirability of the properties available to their own satisfaction prior to the sale.

Properties are sold "AS IS."

CAUTION - INVESTIGATE BEFORE YOU BID:

The sale of these properties should not, in any way, be equated to real estate sales by licensed salespeople, brokers or realtors. The County of Riverside makes no guarantee, expressed or implied, relative to the title, physical location or condition of the properties for sale.

Delinquent property taxes will be paid from the proceeds of the sale, as they are included in the minimum bid. The current 2023/2024 taxes which are due by December 10, 2023 and April 10, 2024 are included in the minimum bid.

When consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed exceeds one hundred dollars ($100) a California Documentary Transfer Tax will be added to, and collected with the purchase price. The amount of this tax is calculated at the rate of $0.55 for each $500.00, or fractional part thereof in accordance with the provisions of Revenue and Taxation Code Section 11911. Additionally, the City of Riverside has enacted the Real Property Transfer Tax Ordinance and charges an additional tax of $0.55 for each $500.00 or fractional part thereof.

Prospective purchasers are advised that some liens, bonds or other assessments which are levied by agencies or offices other than the Treasurer-Tax Collector may still be outstanding after the tax sale.

The Riverside County Treasurer-Tax Collector requires that anyone wishing to participate as a bidder at a scheduled tax sale be registered to bid. Registration requirements vary from sale to sale and are announced approximately six to eight weeks prior to a scheduled sale.

Please Note:

The County of Riverside is not liable for the failure of any device that is not owned, operated, and managed by the state or county, that prevents a person from participation in any sale. "Device" includes, but is not limited to, computer hardware, a computer network, a computer software application, and a computer website. The County of Riverside assumes no liability for any other possible liens, encumbrances or easements recorded or not recorded.

Throughout the preparation of a tax sale our office may be made aware of or identify certain problems or issues with properties on the tax sale. If any errors or issues are brought to the Tax Collector's attention our office will post the error or issue as a WARNING on www.countytreasurer.org as a courtesy. Please keep in mind that the Tax Collector's Office is not always made aware of errors or issues prior to the close of sale and all properties are sold "AS IS". Prospective purchasers are urged to examine the title, physical location and desirability of the properties available to their own satisfaction prior to the sale.

California Revenue & Taxation Code

3692.3. (a) All property sold under this chapter is offered and sold as is.

(b) The state, the county, and an employee of these entities acting in the employee's official capacity in preparing, conducting, and executing a sale of property under this chapter, are not liable for any of the following:

(1) Known or unknown conditions of this property, including, but not limited to, errors in the assessor's records pertaining to improvement of the property.

(2) The failure of a device that is not owned, operated, and managed by the state or county, that prevents a person from participating in any sale under this chapter. For purposes of this paragraph, "device" includes, but is not limited to, computer hardware, a computer network, a computer software application, and a computer Web site.
